

Jacobs Engineering Group Inc.
P.O. Box 53495 - 77052
5995 Rogerdale Road
Houston, Texas 77072-3495 U.S.A.
1.832.351.6000 Fax 1.281.564.1818

Position Title: Lead Scheduler

Primary Job Responsibilities:

- Develop CPM schedules for the project
- Facilitates multi-company interactive planning sessions
- Interface construction schedule with engineering schedule
- Review and oversight of contractor's schedules for assigned work scope
- Update CPM schedules
- Analysis of CPM schedules
- Recommends work-around and mitigation efforts to the team
- Communicates schedule status to management regularly via formal meetings and reports
- Interact with engineering discipline leads & construction managers to understand issues and conflicts impacting schedule
- Coordinates earned value system with schedule updates
- Lead in risk analysis function

Training & Experience:

- 15+ years of experience required, BA or BS or related experience
- Expert in Primavera P6 software as a user
- Extensive experience in engineering & construction processes and sequencing
- 8+ years refining and/ or other hydrocarbon processing facility engineering/ construction experience
- Experience in construction management scheduling (using contractor's schedules)
- Large capital project experience
- Risk analysis experience using Pertmaster/ Primavera Risk or similar programs

Other Essential Functions:

- Keen safety awareness
- Excellent communicator
- Operates well in a multi-company team environment
- Demonstrates leadership traits and abilities

Physical Requirements:

- Able to perform job walks requiring climbing in an operating facility wearing protective clothing in a hot climate.
- Requires travel to jobsites

Apply on-line at www.jacobs.com/careers

Use the keyword: IRC97773 in the search, then follow the directions to apply. If you have questions about the applications process, call Jacobs Human Resources at 832-351-6000.