

Scheduling Manager

- Candidate must have Downstream EPC experience
- Should have strong supervisory skills and currently be in a senior lead or manager type role
- Background should involve projects $500MM or greater
- Recruit, train and supervises a staff qualified to analyze and schedule activities pertinent to the design and construction of projects
- Develops policies and procedures to improve the adequacy and efficiency of the planning and scheduling activities
- Provides project management consultation on factors affecting the timely completion of projects.
- Performs special analysis for resource loading and performance progress.
- Frequent communication with client and upper level management.
- Analyzes drawings, specifications and statements of work in the preparation of activity networks for project resource planning and scheduling.
- Prepares program master schedule and performs critical path analysis.
- Prepares plans and schedules, status reports and performance evaluations.
- Analyzes progress reports against the schedule.
- Develops and maintains manpower estimates, equipment and material delivery requirements.
- Monitors material status reports against construction schedules and reviews them with procurement and construction groups.
- Maintains liaison with the project and the field for schedule revision and update.
- Supports project management in accomplishing project status review and performance control.
- Coordinate, supervise and check the work of those scheduling personnel assigned to projects

Requirements:

B.S. degree in an engineering discipline is preferred.
10+ year's experience planning and scheduling for EPC projects.
Strong P6 experience
Prefer experience with projects $500million and higher.

Contact:

Carolyn Stewart
Engineering Recruitment Manager
The Rowland Group
Ofc (713) 715-5900, ext 104
Cell (281) 658-2517
Fax (713) 715-5906
carolyn@rowland-group.com

Send me an invite on LinkedIn

<http://www.linkedin.com/pub/carolyn-stewart-carolyn-rowland-group-com/2/631/357>

“Merging Talent with Opportunity”